How Dwelleth The Love of God?

Romans 12:9 Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. 12:10 Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another; Kindness is so often forgotten in our daily lives, as well as love & compassion. How do we expect to win the lost if we treat them like they have the seven year itch. Jesus said in John 13:35- By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. 1 John 4:7- Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. 1Jn 4:8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. 1Jn 4:9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. 1Jn 4:10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. (Jesus took our place, He's our redeemer,, He paid the price the ransom,, made the eternal sacrifice for sin,, by faith in him we are righteous, we are the sons of God, joint heirs with Christ). 1Jn 4:11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. 1Jn 4:12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. This puts a different perspective on us, because if we hate someone ,we need to make things right with God. The devil will try & get you to hate someone, but we must rebuke those sinful feelings, refusing to heed to the influence of the devil. Forgive & be determined that you will not have bad feelings for that person. If you can't do this, ask the Lord in faith. You may not feel it right away, but when you stand in faith it is done. Faith is not feelings . First time a bad feeling comes, shame on the devil. If it stays, or you think about it, shame on you. The world knows we are human. When we repent & make things right, they are shocked. We must do our best to live before the world, a godly life. We are the only Bible many people read. 1 John 3:17 But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? 18- My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed & in truth. 1Jn 3:18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. We are called to love, with compassion the way Jesus did when he lived on earth. Genna

New Year's resolution....

Have you made up a “New Year’s Resolution”? It’s not a bad idea. You can look at something you have been doing over the past years, that you are not happy with and fix it. The idea of a “New Year’s Resolution” sounds easy, but it is not. Coming up with a “New Year’s Resolution” and sticking with it, is the main part. If you make a “New Year’s Resolution” you really need to keep it. This is a promise to yourself, that you will not do, whatever it was, that you were doing wrong for the past year(s). I made some good ones that have changed my life. It is very productive and I would suggest everyone to make at least one “New Year’s Resolution”. Here are some tips to make your “New Year’s Resolution” successful...

1. Change or fix something that is really fixable. Set a goal that is reachable and honest. For example: Have you read the bible all the way through? If not this is the year to do it.
2. Write it down, or type it out. Make sure you word it as if you were writing it down for someone else.
3. Set allowances. Make sure you understand what can interfere with your Resolution. That way if it does happen it doesn’t end your resolution, it just “pauses” it for a bit. Then you jump back on track.

Once you accomplish your goal, you can add or enhance it as you get stronger. When you stick with your resolution, you will find that you do get stronger and then you can add (little at a time) until you achieve your goal
