

Gena's Key Points

HE THAT ENDURES!

Matthew 24:13 He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. Stop and think; if you have to endure, it has to be something unpleasant. That is not meaning your spouse. I've heard so many talk about how miserable their spouse was. Jesus said in Hebrews 13:5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have, for He hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. That is a promise that we can live on. Jesus didn't say that everything would be good. It is the hard times that we need Him the most. If we only realized that actually we need Him all the time. He wants for us to spend time with our Lord, Jesus. When it seems like He isn't there, usually He is in the back ground working out for our benefit. There are times we go through hardships to get us to the place to where He can use us. Look at Esther. She became the Queen Persia. That might seem so glamorous, but look what she had to endure.. She was called to deliver the Hebrew people from a stupid incident and King Saul let King Agag's pregnant wife get away. She bore a son which kept the Agagite people alive, which hated the Jews. Haman was a descendant of that Queen. Saul disobeyed God's direct command to kill them all and destroy everything, which he didn't do. rebellion, greed and outright defying God's command, caused him to lose the Kingship. The 31st. Chapter of 1 Samuel tells of him and his sons horrible death. Jesus said, " be not dismayed, fear not, only believe." Trust in Me and I will see you through. He never fails us. In us, is where the problem is. Revelations 2:10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried: and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give you a crown of life. I don't want to burst your bubble, but I do not want you to believe the hype that if you are a Christian, everything will go right, no sickness, no trials, etc. Jesus said that in this world you shall have tribulation; but fear not, I have overcome the world. John 14:26,27- says that Jesus has left us his peace, and he would not leave us comfortless, but the comforter, which is the Holy Ghost,(Holy Spirit),. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let it be afraid..We having flesh, which wars against our spirit. which desires to do the will of God. Good people do suffer. We are not yet in this flesh ready to go to heaven. We must do our best to be ready at any time Jesus may call us. It is like the 10 virgins in Matthew 25:4, some had plenty of oil, (Holy Spirit), and some were lacking. I pray that you will consider this as I intended it; not to condemn, but to help you get ready for Jesus's coming. I want to see you in heaven Gena (Genny)

Jesus and the Woman at the Well... John 4 1-14

Adults Class: “Cleaning out the Temple!”

Scripture References:

John 2:13-17

Story Summary:

Joh 2:13 And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, Joh 2:14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: Joh 2:15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; Joh 2:16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise. Joh 2:17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up. After Jesus' 1st miracle was performed in Cana, when he went to Jerusalem he finds his Fathers house being defiled. How it must have hurt him to see this with His own eyes. But what about now what does he see going on in the house of God? He knows the heart and what man is thinking during a church service! He knows if the word is preached with the heart for souls or just your pocket book. Come into His house with Thanksgiving and Praise for He is worthy. See you in Sunday School!

Juniors Class: “Love Never Fails”

Scripture References:

1 Corinthians 13:8

Story Summary:

God's love never fails and he is always there for us, as Christians we should call upon the name of the Lord always and not when we get in a jam. The Lord wants us to talk to him as we do our family and friends. Just remember God is the all seeing eye, and he knows when we need him, but he wants us to call on him amen.

God bless you
