Wounded Soldier

There are times God's soldiers are wounded.
The enemies darts hit again and again.
Disaster strikes, the wounds go deep, sorrow begins.
Trusting God one day at a time, to see us through.
To do only what our Lord Jesus can do.
In our frail and blinded minds, Common sense is left behind.
Heartaches by the number, troubles seem to have no end.
Jesus is a faithful and never ending friend.
Where are our sisters and brothers?
Are we not members of one another?
To tarry with us in prayer along the way,
or needed to lend a helping hand.
Neglected and abused by many of our peers;
But Jesus is the friend who's ever near.
Then his Holy Spirit pouring in the oil and wine.
The healing process begins in time.
God sent us Christians faithful and true,
in God's word we humbly grew.
Now we are stronger, wounded soldiers no longer.
We stand firm with our swords and shields.
Led by God's Spirit to the battlefield.
Remember to give others God's extended loving, helping hand.
For someday you in that place may stand.

This was written in a time when we were ostracized from the church when really needed support from our brothers and sisters in Christ. Then is when we met Ted Pressley, founder of 'Cowboys for Christ.' We spent many nights in Bible study.
He was a true friend. God seen fit to take him home. We really miss him, but he has made it home to be with Jesus. Even after four years.
