

Gena's Key Points

Beloved Saints

Jesus told his saints to keep His commandments and abide in His love. If you love God, love your brethren also. 1 John 4:21. If we are suppose to love our brothers (and sisters), we should have a different attitude towards our family in Christ Jesus. In Ephesians 4:32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. Therefore my beloved brethren, be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord. Knowing that your labour is not in vain. Romans 12:10 Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;. Do you think that Jesus is trying to tell us something? I've seen the coldness of many denominations. They don't agree in a few minor points and they got the idea that the others are not going to heaven. The scriptures say that every man work out your own salvation, with fear and trembling. We are not suppose to judge another man's servant. For to him he stands or falls; sound pretty plain. If we would be more concerned about our own life and doing our best for Christ. We wouldn't have to worry about another brother. According to my Dad's Mom, we weren't going to heaven because we wore pants. Can't we just love one another, work to build God's Kingdom and let the Lord do the rest? Pray for each other in love and truth. I want to see u in heaven. Gena

Adults Class: “Luke 16:24”

Scripture References:

Luke 16:24-31

Story Summary:

Luk 16:24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. The rich man could feel, taste remembering how water quenches the thirst, let alone had his thoughts of family, because he wanted Father Abraham to send someone to his father's house where his five brothers lived to tell them not to come to the place of torment! But we wait until too late to become a missionary or witness when all the time God was calling...Don't wait too long. Matt. 24:35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.
