Joh 16:33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

Joh 17:14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

Joh 17:15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

Joh 17:16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

Joh 17:17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

Joh 17:18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

Joh 17:19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

Joh 17:20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

Joh 17:21 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also maybe one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

Joh 17:22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

Joh 8:31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

Joh 8:32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

Juniors Class: “Character Study: John The Apostle of Love Various Bible Passages”

Scripture References:

Story Summary:

John was a fisherman along with his brother, James (Matt. 4:21-22). As they followed the Lord, He gave them the nickname “Sons of Thunder,” which gives insight into their energetic personalities (Mark 3:17). As part of the “inner circle” of Jesus, the brothers were present at some significant events of Jesus’ ministry (see “Character Study: James”).

In John’s writing, he references himself as the disciple “whom Jesus loved” (John 13:23; 20:2; etc.). John had a great love for the Lord as well, coupled with a strong faith. He was the first to arrive at the empty tomb, the first to believe in the resurrection, and the first to recognize the risen Lord (John 20:4-9; 21:7). He was the only Apostle who witnessed the crucifixion firsthand, and was appointed by Jesus to care for His mother, Mary (John 19:26-27).

Class teacher; Stephanie Booth
