

Gena's Key Points

Ok God, What do we do now!

I'm sure that most people have had times in their lives that they didn't know what to do. I am going to tell you about a couple of times that happen to me. First, I was driving on 35W, downtown Fort Worth. It was on Friday, at 2:00 p.m. I was in the second lane and all of a sudden the overhead cam broke; there was no chance of getting my car started. 2 lanes on my left whizzing by and one on my right. Those behind me, pulled into one of the other lanes, with a hi sign as they passed me. Several policeman passed me. I looked up and said, What do we do now? I called my husband, so they were on the way but, I couldn't do anything but sit there. and listened to one of my preaching tapes. There came a little police woman, who had told the man behind me to pull beside me so she could push me off the freeway. She pushed me off onto the side road, where John came in our truck and towed me home. When Moses was with the children of Israel at the Red Sea with a million people, plus and Pharaohs' army at their heels, I really believe Moses said, what do we do now? Exodus 14: God told him to stand still and see the salvation of the Lord. The Egyptians which you see today, you will see no more. 16 Lift up your rod and stretch forth thy hand over the sea and divide it.: and the children of Israel shall go over on dry ground through the midst of the sea. There were several police that went by me and others that could have helped me. Buy one little, young woman stopped. God bless her. I was in the airport garage with a rack on my truck, The 1st. 2 sections I was fine. I came under the 3rd., and got stuck. I tried to go forward, then back. I couldn't move. I got out and said, God, what do I do. I got in the truck, put it in gear, and hit the gas. The rack pushed back and I made it through the rest of the sections without any more trouble. My God made a way, There's nothing too hard for him, when his children trust him.

Sunday School.....

Adults Class: “No Room For Mercy”

Scripture References: John 7:20

Story Summary:

Jesus was teaching in the Temple about the middle of the feast. A controversy arose about who He was. One group said, "He is the Prophet who is to come ( the Messiah) and others said He was just a deceiver. They wondered at the miracles He performed and the knowledge contained in His teaching. Today, just as then, there are two groups, believers and unbelievers. Which group do you fit in? Do you really believe that Jesus is God's son who came to pay our sin debt (provide the ransom to buy us back from death) or do you just dismiss it because you can't really believe God punishes sin. If God required His Only Begotten Son to suffer separation from Him when He was bearing the sins of the world and to die a horrible, accursed death on the cross, suffer the humiliation and shame that deed brought, what do you think that He might require of me and you, sinners that can only be saved because of His mercy and grace? Remember that Jesus died for us that we might live for Him. We will be looking for you in Sunday School.

Scripture References: Ps. 23

Story Summary:

Psa 23:1 A Psalm of David. The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. Psa 23:2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. Psa 23:3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Psa 23:4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Psa 23:5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Psa 23:6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. It is good to know young people, that Jesus is with us when we follow Him. No matter how bad the troubles you have he will see you through. Walk with Him and talk with him that is what He desires of us. Love You Sis Dendy See you in Sunday School, Best place to be to learn of Jesus!
