

Gena's Key Points

For Who?

We do things for so many different reasons. To us, it might seem reasonable; but, what does God think. After all, in the end he is the only one that matters. Proverbs 12:15 says that the way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise. Proverbs 21:2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts. Why do we go to church, or do good, or act right, etc? To be seen, or for prestige or recognition? Zechariah 7:5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me? The word of the Lord came unto the prophet and said execute true judgment; show mercy, and compassion on your brothers and oppress not the widows, the fatherless, the strangers, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart; but they refused. Are we being ambassadors of Christ? Are we seeking to build his kingdom for the wrong reason? When we sing the praises of God, is it to lift him up or are we just singing? Come on, am I the only one who has to check my heart and make sure that the things I do are for his glory and honor? I have to seek God daily and ask the Holy Spirit to help me do good and right, I want to go to heaven and I want to see you there. My goal is to help others to see what God has dealt with me about. I need him to make it and you do to. There is only one way to heaven and that is through Jesus, God's Son. Why do I say this over and over,, because there is still ones who have not accepted Jesus as their personal savior. How? We believe that he is the son of God; born of a virgin, died and was resurrected and sitting at God's side making intercession for those who pray and believe and serve him. You will never regret it. God is our Father.

Teens Class: Back to Basic's "Love Lifted Me"

Scripture References:

John 3:16 "For God So Loved The World"

Story Summary:

Are you hungry for something more than what you find in the refrigerator? We all have been there! The kids at our house open the door of the fridge, look in every thing, and then shut the door to say "there is nothing to eat" when all the time there is, but not what they want, McDonalds, Taco Bell, etc.. You know what I mean. We get that way when we look to the world to help us instead of looking to God who has all that we need. In fact in Phil 4:19 he tells us what he can do for us! Look it up... Our memory verse: John 3:16

Adults Class: "Division Continues Among The People"

Scripture References: John 7: 37

Story Summary:

Jesus foretells the coming of the Holy Spirit that will live in all believers. Some people said, "of a truth this is the Prophet who is to come." Others asked, "shall the Christ come out of Galilee?" Most of the common people knew the Messiah would come out of Bethlehem and be of the lineage of David. They could not agree who Jesus was. The Pharisees and chief priests had previously told the Temple Guards to take Jesus into custody. When they inquired of the Guards why they had not taken him, the officers told them "never has a man spoken like this." They were ridiculed by the Pharisees and the Pharisees said this people who does not know the law are cursed. In other words, they do not know enough not to be deceived. Again, the self-righteousness of the Pharisees came to the forefront and they looked down on the people they thought were just common. Jesus departed and went to the Garden of Olives. The next day, He came to the Temple and again continued to teach the people. The Pharisees continued to scheme and plan how to entrap Jesus and get rid of Him. How about you? What are you doing with Jesus today. Are you making him Lord of your life or are you being lukewarm in your relationship with Him? How we answer this shows our heart condition. We welcome you to Sunday School. Join us as we study God's Word. By Bonnie Rogers
