

Gena's Key Points

Father

The greatest example of a father is Father God. Since our fathers are not perfected yet, we must be forgiving for their shortcomings and mess-ups. As they grow in the Lord they should be more like Father God. It is very important for dad to study the attributes of our heavenly Father. Jesus said learn of me. He was the express image of his Father, God. I really never had a father after I was young. I loved him from the time I was young and never lost that love, even though he left us and mom to fend for us. We never had much, but we had lots of love and godly training. When my kids were half grown dad straightened out his life and served the Lord for the rest of his life. During that time we were reunited. We had time to forgive and love as God intended, Even after that time there were things that needed repairing. I wrote my dad a letter a couple of months before he died and mended all hurt feelings, I never got a letter back but I had forgiven him when I sent that letter. My brother said he said that he forgave me also. Then he went to live with Jesus. It took him a long time to become a good father, but he did finally. It is awesome when young men are trained to be good fathers. As long as there is life and a willing heart a dad can become a good father..It takes time to create a good relationship with your children Ephesians 6:2 says to honor your Father and your mother for this is the first commandment with promise. (Exodus 20:12) 3. That all may be well with and that you may have long life on this earth. You know it says to do to others as you would have men do to you, Of course, there is exceptions to the rules. God has a blessing for the father who reaps evil for good from their kids. Remember all people have been given a free will and if they choose to be hateful, God knows and will reward you if you are faithful, Happy Fathers Day.

Sunday School.....

Adults Class: “Self-righteousness and ignorance against the truth”

Scripture References: John 7:47

Story Summary:

The Pharisees were reveling in self-righteousness and prejudice. They vocalized the assumption that Jesus could not be that Prophet that was coming because He was from Galilee. They were spiritually blind and ignorant of God's Word. They were ignorant because they only saw what they wanted to see. When Nicodemus urged restraint in judging Jesus, they mocked him and ridiculed him. They were not happy because the guards had not arrested Jesus, instead, the guards had recognized something different about Him. The Pharisee's heart was hard and they refused to consider anything that did not fit their way of thinking. They were very busy trying to trap Jesus and make Him look foolish and guilty of blasphemy before those who followed him. The wisdom of God, Jesus' intimacy with His Father, and the power of the Holy Spirit kept Him. Do you depend on God to keep you as you walk through troubles and trials in this life or do you behave as the Pharisees did and try to fix things in your flesh? Do you see God in the midst of troubles as the "ultimate fixer" or do you see Him in His character as the one who loves you and always knows what is best for you. As we trust God, we need to learn to trust Him because of who He is and not what He does. I'm looking forward to seeing you in Sunday School at 10:00.
