

Gena's Key Points

By This Shall All Men Know That Ye Are My Disciples!

Jesus tells us in John 13:35 that all men will know his disciples because of the love they have, one for another. 1 Peter 1:22 says to love fervently with a pure heart. Ephesians 5:1 says that we are to be followers of God as dear children; 2: And walk in love, as Christ who hath loved us, and hath given himself for us as an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour. Hebrews 13:1 Let brotherly love continue. James 2:8 If ye fulfill the royal law according to the scriptures, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well. 1 John 4:7 Beloved let us love one another; for love is of God; and everyone that loveth is born of God and knoweth God. 8: He that loveth not, knoweth not God, for God is love. 9: In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because God sent His only begotten son into the world, that we might live through him. Romans 12:9 Let love be without dissimulation, ( honestly from the heart, truthfully) abhor that which is evil, cleave to that which is good. Romans 13:8 Owe no man anything, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. 1Thessalonians 3:12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and to all men, as we do towards you. Do you think love is important? I don't believe we'll make it to heaven without love.

Adults Class: "Behold: God's Judgement And Mercy"

Scripture References: Acts 12:20

Story Summary: Herod, who had lifted up his hand against God by killing and persecuting followers of Jesus, sat to make a treaty with Tyre and Sidon. At the meeting, seated on his throne, he allowed himself to be worshipped and called a god. The Lord smote him and caused him to be eaten by worms and he died. The word was being preached and was growing and multiplying. Godly men were praying and fasting in Antioch. God spoke to them and told them to separate Saul and Barnabas from them to go and do the work they were called to do. They laid hands on them, prayed, and sent them out. Are you willing to seek the face of God for yourself and others? Are you desiring to find your place of service and humble yourself to do it? Are you willing to put to death your flesh? Our Lord is seeking such to serve Him in this day and hour. I hope to see you in Sunday School at 10:00 A.M.

Teens Class: "It's Baseball time again!"

Scripture References: Genesis 8-11

Story Summary: God remembered Noah and all the people and animals who were with him. God sent a wind over the earth and the water began to dry up. The ark rested on Mt. Ararat and the tops of the mountains were seen. After forty days, Noah opened the window and sent out a raven. Next, he sent a dove. It returned. He waited another seven days, sent the dove out again and it returned with a fresh olive leaf. He waited another seven days, sent it out, and it did not return. Noah removed the covering of the ark and saw that the ground was dry. God said, "all of you go out." Then Noah built an altar and sacrificed of every clean animal and bird. The Lord was pleased with the sweet smelling aroma, Then the Lord said to Noah, while the earth remains, seed time and harvest, cold and heat, winter and summer, and day and night shall not cease..Genesis 9: God made a covenant with Noah, because he found grace in the eyes of the Lord. God told Noah to be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth. All living things are in your hands. Every living thing I give you for food. But you shall not eat flesh with its life, that is, it's blood. The blood is life and life is precious to God. Man is commanded not to shed another man's blood because man was made in the image of God. God told Noah that He was making a covenant that the earth would no more be destroyed by a flood. He set a rainbow in the sky as a reminder of His covenant.
