Conscience #824 And #825

Act 23:1 And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

Rom 2:15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;

Rom 13:5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

1Co 8:9 But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

Heb 9:13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

Heb 9:14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

Act 24:16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

Rom 9:1 I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2 Co 1:12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

1 Th 1:5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

1 Ti 1:5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

1 Ti 1:19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

1 Pe 3:16 Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

FROM THE PASTORS: 1 Co. 9:20-24, Paul tells us that he becomes all things to all men that he may win them to the Lord. That does not mean he sins to help them he shows them the way out of it.
