

Gena's Key Points

Be On Guard!

My nurse and I were walking along my driveway and talking. As we passed by the tomato plants she stopped and said look. It was a caterpillar. Immediately, I knocked it to the ground and smashed it. We continued to look through the rest of the plants. We found about 6 altogether and killed them all. That reminded me of the scripture in Joel 1:4 and 2:12-18 and 23-25 about the locust plague. These scriptures are speaking about the different ways the plant is destroyed by each stage of the Locust's life. Each stage attacks a different area of the plant, just like the devil attacks us. The second chapter of Joel tells how God expects us to handle adversity. "Therefore also now, saith the Lord. turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil." It is time that the people of God repent and draw nigh unto him. It starts with individuals, then churches, cities, states, and our nation. It is time we stop serving God for the loaves and fishes. We do need to serve the Lord because we love him. So many chase after riches. We need to depend on the Lord for our needs. God is so much more than a paycheck. He gives us so much more than we could ever give. My heart's desire is to see God's people on fire in the Holy Ghost, in an old-fashioned, sin killing, devil chasing, Holy Ghost revival where souls run to the altar and miracles are commonplace. Jesus is the same, the problem is us. What are you going to do about it? Each person is responsible, first for themselves, then those around them.

Scripture References:

Romans 12:17

Story Summary:

We are to recognize our accountability to God for our actions. Our actions are to be recognized as having the right motive and being honest before all men. When others offend us or try to hurt or harm us, we must give it to God. He is the avenger. Meet your enemies needs. God will repay him for his wrong. Are you willing to walk in the freedom of the Spirit with no cares or worries because you have learned to give them to God? Jesus is pleased when we are able to follow His example. I am looking forward to seeing you in Sunday School at 10:00 A.M..

Story Summary:

Everyone seems to wrestle with some sort of fear. In this series, we will look at a number of these fears and see what Scripture says is the key to overcoming them. Let's begin with the fear that often comes with the uncertainties of the future. With all of the big decisions that need to be made in life, along with preparing for college and a career, the many unanswered questions about the future can seem quite scary. What does the Bible say? Even David had a fear of the future. When his popularity grew in Israel and he was anointed to be the next king, Saul became very jealous and tried to kill him.
