Praise the Lord for all His blessings this week that we can all be in His house this day! Amen!

Welcome everyone. It is so good to see you all this morning for I know that you love God, His Son, Jesus Christ and our comforter, the Holy Ghost! Brothers and sisters let's let go and let God have His way this morning. I don't know about you but I feel revival!!!

Remember to keep in prayer: our troops, government leaders, our Evangelist, Sister Mary Adams, Lay Witness For Christ Ministry, Dr. Sam and Sharon Mings, Israel, all churches, our prayer box, all the sick people, and the web site gospellighthouseoutreach.com . We put prayer request from our members and from the web site into our prayer box and pray over the names in the box each time we have service.

Alyshia Nettles; It was great to have her back with us last week. She sung, played bass guitar, and taught the children's Sunday School Class. She just recently joined the Navy straight out of high school and finished her basic training. Alyshia left on July 12th for Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, to serve as a prison guard. Alyshia is their first child of Scott and Samantha Nettles to leave the nest! With Mama's apron strings aren't so easily cut. Blessings to you Alyshia. We'll keep you in our prayers! And for her family. They'll miss her as we will.

YOU TOOK MY PARKING SPACE AT CHURCH

Contributed by Donna Worley

One day, a man went to visit a church. He got there early, parked his car and got out. Another car pulled up near the driver got out and said, " I always park there! You took my place! " The visitor went inside for Sunday School, found an empty seat and sat down. A young lady from the church approached him and stated, " That's my seat! You took my place! " The visitor was somewhat distressed by this rude welcome, but said nothing.

After Sunday School, the visitor went into the sanctuary and sat down. Another member walked up to him and said, " That's where I always sit! You took my place! " The visitor was even more troubled by this treatment, but still said nothing.

Later as the congregation was praying for Christ to dwell among them, the visitor stood up, and his appearance began to change. Horrible scars became visible on his hands and on his sandaled feet. Someone from the congregation noticed him and called out, " What happened to you? " The visitor replied, as his hat became a crown of thorns, and a tear fell from his eye, " I took your place! "

*NOTE*

If you think you own the seat that you sit in at church and wish for no one to sit there but you, the best thing to do is be the first person in church every time the doors are opened to claim the seat, then nothing will need to be said except, " Good morning and welcome! We don't own the seats we sit in at church. They belong to God. We are honored guest of God. How would you feel if you were visiting a church and were being treated this way? Would you want to return? I think not! Let's be polite when a stranger enters into our church and sits any where... They are honored guest of God just as you are... Let's make them feel like one of the family so they will want to come back and bring someone with them.

Thanks Donna for your contribution!
