

Gena's Key Points

Be Ye Kindly Affectionate One To Another!

Romans 12 starts with Paul instructing us in the way we should be toward our Lord and Savior. First, we are to present ourselves as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to Him. This shows others, by our example, that we belong to Him. People see Jesus in us, the hope of glory. 2 Corinthians 5:17 tells us that If any man be in Christ (If Christ Jesus is in us, we will be in Him) he is a new creature, old things are passed away, behold, all things are become new. Verse 20 says we are ambassadors of Christ. We are not to be conformed to this world, (the physical realm), but to be transformed by the renewing of our mind. We cannot do it by works that we do but through the power of the Holy Spirit. Change comes when we repent (doing a turn-around). We ask and trust Jesus to lead us. We engage in spiritual warfare by doing what Jesus wants us to do though our flesh does not want to do it. We are victorious because of what Jesus did at Calvary. When he ascended to His Father he sent us the Holy Spirit of promise. We are told to "Be ye kindly affectionate one to another, with brotherly love giving preference to others. " That leaves no room for selfishness. Lord willing I will do my best to finish the rest of this next week.

Sunday School (cont.).....

Adults Class: "Behold: God Prepares A Division"

Scripture References:

Acts 15:34

Story Summary:

Paul and Barnabas purposed in their heart to go check on all the churches they had started but they had a disagreement. Barnabas wanted to take John Mark but Paul did not want to take him because he had not been dependable in the past. The disagreement was so strong that Paul and Barnabas parted ways. Barnabas went one way with John Mark and Paul went another way with Silas. Many times, God engineers circumstances in our life to bring us to another level, to remove us from where we are comfortable, and place us in a position of depending on Him and taking in new friends and brothers and sisters in Christ that need our maturity and insight. We can trust God to engineer our circumstances, friends, and opportunities to bring him honor and glory. Do you trust Him enough to allow him to do that in your life? I hope to see you in Sunday School at 10:00 A.M..

Juniors Class: "Praise the Lord"

Scripture References:

Psalms 150

Story Summary:

150 Praise ye the Lord. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

2 Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.

3 Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psaltery and harp.

4 Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and organs.

5 Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.

6 Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord.
