In the last days, before grace as we know it comes to an end, the forces of evil will be set free on the earth. God will allow devastation and destruction to run rampant. The students need to be aware that it will not always be easy to come to Christ. Today's lesson continues to discuss how rough it will get before Jesus will banish satan forever.

Kindergarten Class: "Abraham is Kind"

Scripture References:

Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another. Ephesians 4:32

Story Summary:

Sharing is one of the more difficult behaviors for people of all ages to learn. While we encourage and expect children to share, we often find sharing with other adults difficult. Sharing is best learned by children seeing it modeled and being affirmed for their attempts to share. Kindergartners are just developing the ability to see another person's point of view, so they may not share out of empathy. However, they desire to please adults and will follow their lead.
