

Gena's Key Points

Continuing from Romans 12

We left off with discussing brotherly love and renewing our minds, proving what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God. Let me say here that we are what we eat, from our head down to our feet. This goes for the spiritual life as well as the physical life. John's computer teacher said, "garbage in, garbage out." This is true for what we put in our minds. Romans 12:3 tells us not to think of oneself more highly than he ought. Selfishness and self-exalting are very dangerous. When one puts himself before God, he is walking in dangerous territory. Isaiah 42:8 I am the Lord: that is my name and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to a graven image. One is to think soberly, God has dealt to every man a measure of faith. We have many members in the body, they are not all the same. In Christ, we are all members one of another. We have different gifts according to the grace of God. such as prophecy, ministry, teaching, exhorting, all according to our faith, giving with simplicity, ruling with diligence, he that showeth mercy with cheerfulness. Love without dissimulation (partiality or hypocrisy), abhor (despise, hate) evil, cleave to good, kindly affectionate with brotherly love, in honor preferring one another. Not slothful in business (lazy, inconsistent, dishonest), rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing in prayer,(Go about your day with a prayerful attitude), contributing to the necessity of the saints, given to hospitality. Bless them which persecute you and curse not. Rejoice with them that rejoice and weep with them that weep. Be of one mind, mind not high things but condescend to those of low estate, be not wise in your own conceits. Do not recompense (repay) evil for evil, but do good. If possible live peaceably with all men. Avenge not yourselves, but give place to wrath, for it is written, vengeance is mine; I will repay. Therefore, if thy enemy hungers, feed him, if he thirsts, give him drink, in doing so you shall heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome with evil, but overcome evil with good. Do good. He loved us so much that he gave us his son, Jesus, as a ransom for our sins. That doesn't mean that we can do it our way. There is only one way, Jesus. We need to be saved by asking Jesus to forgive us our sins, repent, (turn from your evil), trust Jesus to do the things you can't. He forgives your sins by grace through faith. He gives us beauty for ashes. He gives his Holy Spirit to help us. He gives us his love and peace.

Scripture References:

Isaiah 58:9-12

Story Summary:

Isaiah 58:9-12 King James Version (KJV)

9 Then shalt thou call, and the Lord shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity;

10 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day:

11 And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

12 And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

Scripture References:

Acts 16:6

Story Summary:

As Paul, Silas, and Timothy are traveling, they are preaching everywhere they go. Luke joins them in Troas. They determined to go to Macedonia because of the night vision that Paul had of seeing a man asking them to come to Macedonia and help them. They went to Philippi, a major city in Macedonia. As they went about preaching, they learned that women of the city would go to the riverside every sabbath to pray. They went and spoke to the women gathered there. Lydia, one who worshiped God, received what was said. She and her entire household were baptized and she asked them to live in her home while they were in Philippi. As they went about preaching, a young woman began to follow them. She had a spirit of divination and would cry out "these men are the servants of the most high God which show us the way of salvation." Paul recognized the evil spirit and after many days, cast it out of her. Her masters were angered. What about you? Are you careful to discern the spirits? I hope to see you in Sunday School at 10:00 A,M,

Teens Class: "Knowing Your Enemies.....Bridgette Gabriel"

Scripture References: Ye shall know the truth!

Story Summary:

We watched the first part of Bridgette Gabriel's testimony of the overtaking of her homeland, the bombing and torturing of Christians and Jews alike. What it was like to live in a bomb shelter for 7 years, and having to sell everything to get water and food. Men, women, and children were tortured. They sat one of the mothers in the bomb shelter in a chair, with her hands tied. Placing her son in her lap, they tied a knife in her hands and forced her to cut her sons throat. Bridgette warns America not to make the same mistake Jordan did. The Muslims took over by cheating, lying, killing and destroying anyone in their way. Their charge is to "kill the infidels." DON'T BE FOOLED BY WHAT APPEARS TO BE PEACEFUL ACTIONS. They truly are wolves in sheep's clothing. Beware.
