Mat 21:43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

Mat 25:28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

Mar 6:11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

Luk 16:2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

Luk 19:24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

Luk 20:16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

Rev 2:5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

Adults Class: “It's Not About Me”

Scripture References: 1 Corinthians 12:27

Story Summary:

God places members in His body as He desires. As He places the members, the gifts that have been imparted to them by the Holy Spirit are to be used for the benefit of the body. We also see in the Word of God that all the gifts in the world mean nothing if you do not have love. Love is the catalyst that makes the gifts meaningful and productive. Do you truly love today? I hope to see you in Sunday School at 10:00 A.M..

Juniors Class: “Christian Doctrine God \(Part 6\) Attributes:”

Story Summary:

Who Is He? God Is Omnipotent

➤ What Does This Mean?

• God is all-powerful. God is able to do anything that is in accord with His will and nature.

➤ Where Do We See This in Scripture?

• Nothing is “impossible with God” (Luke 1:37).

• “With God all things are possible” (Matt. 19:26).

• God describes Himself as “the Almighty One” (Gen. 17:1; Is. 1:24; II Cor. 6:18; Rev. 1:8; 19:6).

• “Ah, Lord God! It is you who have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm.

Nothing is too hard for you” (Jer. 32:17).

• The gospel is the “power of God” for salvation (Rom. 1:16), which includes the power of God seen in Christ’s resurrection from the dead (II Cor. 13:4).

• God’s power can also be seen as He unfolds His plan for our lives (Eph. 1:11; Rom. 8:29-30).

➤ What Does This Mean for Me?

In the face of difficulties, we must remember that we have Christ’s strength which enables us to “do all things” (Phil. 4:13).

No prayer request is too big for God (Phil. 4:6). Yet we must learn to pray in such a way that desires His will (not ours!) to be accomplished. Great comfort comes from knowing our requests are in the hands of an Almighty God. Great peace comes from knowing He will accomplish His will.

As we look at the world around us, and as we examine our own lives, we need to have a heart of praise and thanksgiving at how God has displayed His power in so many awesome ways!
